

PRE AND POST TEST

1. The response to a disaster is coordinated using a(n) _____ using national _____ guidelines.
2. State and Federal resources will arrive when _____.
3. All response agencies must _____
4. to successfully meet the challenge presented by a bioterrorist attack.
5. Distribution of medications from the Federal government's _____ is the responsibility of the public health department.
6. Another important function of the public health department is disease _____ using epidemiologic methods.
7. Hospitals provide definitive acute and emergency _____.
8. The Emergency Management Authority has responsibility for _____.
9. The role of law enforcement is to gather the evidence because the site of an incident is a _____.
10. Mental health providers counsel victims, _____, and _____.
11. The role of Emergency Medical Services is to _____ victims of an incident.
12. Often the resources of a region are depleted during an incident. This can be remedied if their plan has built in _____.
13. Special populations, such as _____, _____, and _____ require preplanning to adequately provide for their care.

ANSWERS

1. Incident command system (ICS), national incident management system (NIMS)
2. Local resources are exhausted
3. Work together
4. Strategic national stockpile
5. Surveillance
6. Medical care
7. Overall coordination of the county's response
8. Crime scene
9. Staff and the worried-well
10. Transport
11. Surge capacity
12. The disabled, the hard of hearing, speakers of languages other than English