

South Carolina Family Medicine Residency Programs

Prisma Health / UofSC SOM Greenville Greenville Family Medicine Residency Program

www.prismahealth.org

About the Program

The Prisma Health Family Medicine Residency- Greenville is three-year ACGME-accredited program established in 1971 and located in Greenville, South Carolina. Our program is designed to provide comprehensive, high-quality family medicine education with the goal of transforming health care for the people we serve. We offer an inclusive and supportive culture and an innovative curriculum in a large, academic tertiary care center setting.

Key Highlights

- Program focus on Lifestyle Medicine including an innovative residency curriculum to promote wellness in both our patients and residents
- Hands-on training in primary care ultrasound, women's health, and behavioral science in the USC School of Medicine Greenville's high-tech Simulation Center
- Faculty interests and strengths in high-quality teaching
- Access to medical students and Residents-as-Teachers curriculum
- Preparation to practice in a variety of settings (academic, urban, community, or rural)
- Opportunity to provide care for patients of all ages
- Flexibility to pursue your personal interests within Family Medicine
- Preparation to pursue advanced fellowship opportunities including our affiliated Sports Medicine Fellowship
- Established Global Health opportunities
- Training in leadership in Family Medicine
- Collaborative relationships with other training programs within our institution on clinical, educational, and scholarly initiatives
- Competitive salary and benefits
- Ideal location in the exciting, yet affordable Greenville, SC with close proximity to the mountains and beach, Asheville, NC; Charlotte, NC; Atlanta, GA; and Charleston, SC

Quick Facts

Accepts IMGs	Structure	Community-Based	University-Affiliated	Single/Multiple Programs
Yes	6-6-6	No	Yes	Multiple