

Racial Equity Discussion Series

Join Us for a Virtual Discussion about Racism and Its Connection to Health Inequities

Florida AHEC and South Carolina AHEC are partnering to host a virtual discussion about racism and its connection to health inequities in the United States. Prior to each session, participants will watch a webinar from “Advancing Racial Equity” series by American Public Health Association. During the virtual session, AHEC Scholars and health professions students will learn from each other by discussing concepts from the webinar and strategies to advance racial equity and justice.
