

Black Men in White Coats

Film Screening & Discussion

Fed up with the lack of diversity among doctors, a medical doctor sets out to explore why only 2% of American doctors are black men.

Black Men in White Coats is a documentary dissecting the systemic barriers preventing black men from becoming medical doctors and the consequences on society at large.

Registered participants will be able to view the 80-minute film online and later join a group discussion of the film via videoconference.
