

DESCRIPTION

This seminar is designed to offer practical guidance for caregivers who have a limited amount of time to help someone who is facing the death of a loved one. You may be a nurse, chaplain, social worker who has few minutes to a few hours to help family members begin the journey of grief. It is also of value to counselors and psychotherapists who are helping someone make the journey of grief.

These guidelines are presented in the form of beatitudes. A beatitude is a declaration that makes a promise. These beatitudes for grief are based on the beatitude in the new testament book of Matthew. Matthew 5:4 : " Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted."

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this program, the participant should be able to:

1. Define the journey of grief.
2. Identify comfort is an essential part of the journey.
3. Discuss the 5 beatitudes as practical guidelines that offer comfort.
4. Know the importance of hearing the story of the bereaved.
5. Examine one's own story as to be of comfort to someone facing the death of a loved one.
