

Art of Leadership Part 2

Thursday August 29, 2024

DESCRIPTION

As leadership is an art, many “artists” have mapped out leadership theories to help new and inspiring leaders chart a course to success. This workshop will address styles of leadership (descriptive) and Situation Leadership (prescriptive), types and use of power in leadership roles, and leading change in work environments.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the course, participants should be able to :

- Define principles of leadership
- Present Situational Leadership
- Discuss styles of leadership (Crosby)
- Present the relationship between leadership and power
- Address promoting change
- Identify communication techniques for leadership

INSTRUCTOR

Cookie Muscarella holds a Bachelor’s Degree and Master’s Degree in Social Work from the State University of New York at Buffalo. Throughout her career, she has worked with various populations in the role of therapist, supervisor, agency director, adjunct professor, presenter and consultant. Working with children, teens, families, women, veterans, active-duty military members, and the mentally ill have given her a broad range of exposure to both common and specific issues of these groups. Both teaching and consulting have provided her with the joy of sharing her personal experiences as continuing the process of life-long learning.
