

TEN WARNING SIGNS OF ALZHEIMER'S

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 2026
11:30AM - 12:30PM

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program will teach participants the signs to help identify early possible problems associated with Alzheimer's or another dementia while differentiating normal aging.

OBJECTIVES

- Identify early signs of Alzheimer's or another dementia.
- Differentiate normal aging.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Deborah Stoner, Volunteer Facilitator, Georgetown Caregiver's Support Group
Deborah, a native of Georgetown, is not only a volunteer facilitator for Georgetown's Caregiver's Support Group, but she is also a Community Educator for Alzheimer's related topics. She was the organizer of the First Alzheimer's Walk in Georgetown in 2024.

LOCATION

Mcleod Medical Park West
AHEC Conference Room, Suite 350
101 S. Ravenel St. Florence, SC 29506

CREDITS

Counselor/Therapist
Non-Social Worker and AHEC Credit

FEE

Consortium Member $10
Non-consortium member: $20

Pee Dee AHEC
Area Health Education Center

For questions contact,
Kimberly Morris
843-777-5352 or email
Kimberlymorris@mcleodhealth.org

TO REGISTER, SCAN THE QR CODE