

High In Plain Sight: Current Drug Trends

Webinar 9:00-11:30 am

Friday, August 14, 2026

Instructor: Officer Jermaine Galloway, known as the “Tall Cop”, is a nationally and internationally recognized presenter, five time national award winner, international aware winner and resource for those involved with prevention, education, treatment and enforcement. Officer Galloway began his law enforcement career in 1997 and has more than 24 years experience in alcohol and drug education, enforcement and prevention. As a full time trainer, the “Tall Cop” currently dedicates thousands of hours to community scans, research and substance abuse identification in various communities across the country. While in law enforcement, Officer Galloway was a member of the DUI task force, a CSI, community policing unit and a field-training officer.

Purpose: This session will provide attendees with the ability, knowledge and confidence to help prevent and identify students who may be abusing drugs and / or alcohol. Attendees will also be taught the strategies and different terms that are consistent with student alcohol & drug abuse. There are several identifiers, logos and terms that are commonly related to drug (illegal and over the counter) and alcohol abuse, marijuana abuse, and drug concealment at school. These items, along with much more, will be discussed.

At the conclusion of this program, each participant will be able to:

- Quickly identify alcohol and drug use and abuse indicators of possible at-risk students, through products, stash compartments, clothing brands, lingo, music lyrics, etc.
- Recognize the current drug culture at first observation or interview, including Delta 8, 9, and 10.
- Identify concealment methods for alcohol and drugs in the classroom or other locations at school, including vaping.
- Provide education for improved policy and procedures regarding current alcohol and drug abuse prevention and intervention
